President's Message

It's MAY!! Summer is just around the corner and those with families have got to be looking forward to summer break. I am looking ahead to a week away for a retreat in Kansas in June and a few more family trips.

April is behind us and if there had been a way to test drive the ZOOM function with the big TV prior to the meeting it would have been done. I thank everyone for their patience and for sticking with us to make it work at the meeting. Hopefully we won't run into these issues again. Thankfully, there was a good number of our members who tuned in via ZOOM and got the message clearly. I took part in the workshop with David and it was enlightening. While paper is not my chosen medium, it was interesting to work with different materials and get creative!

I'm working on my rainbow scrap challenge mini quilt and plan on having it on display. I may not win a prize with the Guild, but I'm going to pull in some bucks at the Expo!

I am really looking forward to this month's speaker and workshop! If you haven't noticed, I'm ALWAYS on the lookout for bringing unique projects and new people to the guild to share their skills, knowledge and experiences with us. Kay Thomas and I ran into Jerianne last year on an impromptu Oklahoma Shop Hop and was hooked on her patented tool and trunk show. We both bought the tool with visions of the quilts we were going home to make!! I need to find my tool... :) So, I hope you enjoy her lecture, trunk show and workshop...if you've signed up! And you should!! The board voted for a no cost workshop due to the cost of the tool you'll need for the class. Hope to see you there.

Have a great month and make pretty things!
Kathi

April Program

Sheri, Linda (a guest), Linn,
Kathi, Kathy

May

Exciting news for our May Guild meeting! Jerriann @ Annie McHug has agreed to do a workshop along with her lecture, Picture Window Reverse Applique for us! Wahoo! Several people have asked for her Picture Window Dresden Tool workshop and that's what she's agreed to do. If you haven't already signed-up on the sheet, call me and I'll get your name on the list. I'm not sure of the limit on attendees yet so get your name on the list early! We have decided to reduce the cost for members to -0- because we have to buy the Dresden tool for the workshop. The tool is regularly $44.00 but Jerriann will have them for sale at the workshop for $40.00. And, we have a workshop space! It will be at 6709 Meadow Crest Dr, NRH, TX . This is in the building labeled Tex-Inspect. This location is just a block east of Ruff Snow and about 3 or 4 blocks north of 820. Thank You Sandra Hardin for finding this place!

June

June is our Pot Luck meeting along with voting on our Scrap Color Challenge. I hope you're working on your project! If you need a color just call, text or email me. Win the BIG PRIZE MONEY! Also, if you're putting your project in the Quilt Show Auction, the size needs to be limited to "nothing bigger than 24 inches" and "nothing smaller than 10 inches".

July

July we have Carol Morrissey returning to our guild. You may recall that she visited us back in Oct 2018 with a lecture on, "Confessions of an Absent Minded Quilter" and a workshop, "Fabric Postcards". Her lecture in July will be "Practical Color Theory for Quilts" with a workshop "Thread Painting". I hope that you are as excited about her returning as I am. I will have a sign-up sheet at our next Guild Meeting. Cost for members will be $10.00. We hope to have this workshop at 6709 Meadow Crest Dr, NRH, TX . but I'm still working on confirming this.

Quilt Entry/Registration (online only) –

- Guild members only will have a protected window to enter a quilt from April 1 to May 1. After May 1 then it will open up to any outside entries but we wanted to give our members a chance first. Everyone can still enter after the May 1st date but it will not be protected and it goes to first come first served. I don't think that will be a problem. The entry deadline is June 1st.
- When you start your entry form there will be a question you must answer as to whether you are an Artisan or a Master. Once you make that choice, you will only be able to see the categories that you can enter correctly.
- Fee for Guild members is $25 per entry, non-members is $40.
- Both the forms are ready on the website. You can click from NorthTexasQuiltFestival.com or directly here: <https://www.sewingexpo.com/Events/Dallas-TX/NTQF-Entry-Form-2022>
- Juniors: <https://www.sewingexpo.com/Events/Dallas-TX/NTQF-Junior-Entry-2022>

The full explanation of the division and categories is available on the Guild website and also when you enter a quilt.

Come and join us in the fall. Mark your calendars for Sept 22-25, 2022 at Red Boot Retreat Center.

Use a large heavy cutting Board after pressing block instead of a smaller Tailor's Tack. It should be larger than the quilt block to cover all seams.

The Pastry Roller may be used to press seams and may have many other uses.

Retreat Round-up

Kathi Runyan

I was happy to visit Quiltrageous Quarters earlier this year in Celeste, Texas. I just happened to see a facebook post from Eileen Urbanek and had the time free when she was hosting some instruction time at this retreat center and was happy to be able to sign up and attend.

I really enjoyed the center, sleeping arrangements and accommodations. There is a spacious sewing area that is divided up into areas, for groupings of quilters 4 or more per area. I didn't know anyone except Eileen, and I'm ok with that. I tend to get more work done when I'm not chatting with my buddies!! They provided meals and they were good! The center is located in a small town area and without the Quilter stickers on a few cars, I probably would have been driving around for a while looking for the right spot. Parking is tight, but manageable and upon arrival you enter in through your bedroom, which faces the parking lot, motel style. The rest of the sewing area, kitchen and lounge are at the front of the center.

What they say: Our 4900 square foot facility has 9 bedrooms, 6 with 3 beds and 3 with 2 beds. There is a dining hall, kitchen, cutting room, sewing room, and shower room. When set up for 20 sewing stations, we have three large ironing stations. These usually have a large iron at each station. There are two outside porches for relaxation after a fun day/evening of sewing. The facility has central heat/air with 3 temperature zones. The Facility has 7 toilets, 5 showers, and 4 lavatories. Each very comfortable bed comes with linens, 3 piece towel set, pillow, bed quilt, reading light, and luggage stand. Each guest will have their own personal sewing table with an individual ironing station and an adjustable sewing chair. This table allows you to sew at a comfortable height.

What I say: I enjoyed this retreat center and the amenities. It is quite reasonable at around $60 per night without the added chef costs. They are able to have a massage therapist if requested and best of all the wonderful shop (walking distance) Quilt Mercantile is a wonderful treat. The owners of the retreat center also own the shop and are very accommodating with getting any supplies you might need and running a tab at the shop too. My only downside is the distance from home...Celeste is quite small and I think I went through Greenville to get there. It just felt like a long trip and if you know me, you know I don't mind a drive for a good retreat! And, there really isn't a lot of restaurants or food options in the nearby area, with the exception of a Mexican restaurant that a few retreaters visited and enjoyed.

Retreat Center

101 S 3RD ST
CELESTE, TEXAS 75423

I say it's worth a visit, the shop is terrific and the retreat center is a great spot for a getaway. You can check the calendar on their website, it is pretty popular with not many open dates.
