President's Message

Hi Quilters!

I had the best time at a retreat sponsored by Suddenly Sewing, a neat sewing/fabric store located in Fort Worth. Michael Kralicek is owner and Chris Kralicek is manager. (see photos below)

The retreat began on Friday afternoon at 1:00 P.M. and ended Sunday at 6:00 P.M. The cost was $100. One meal was provided on Saturday and one on Sunday. There are several fast food restaurants in the area to fill in the gaps. This type of retreat is called a "Sleep at Home Retreat." There are 2 or 3 offered per year. What a great alternative for those unable or unwilling to spend more money on a traditional retreat, or for those who want to sleep at home! Sometimes, it's just too much trouble to pack up all of your personal belongings, sewing machines, and sewing supplies for a weekend of sewing.

When I signed up for the retreat, I didn't know another person planning to attend. At the last minute, though, someone I knew signed up. There were ladies from several different locations and it was my pleasure to make many new friends. It's always fun to meet such amazingly talented women!

I was fortunate to win a $100 gift certificate to the store during one of the weekend activities! Can you believe that? I was the biggest loser and the biggest winner at the same time! Can you figure out how that happened?

The location for Suddenly Sewing is 5850 Kroger Drive #110 in Fort Worth. Check them out at www.suddenlysewing.com. or Fans of Suddenly Sewing on Facebook.

Please note that I am sharing my opinions about my retreat experiences with you. They are provided so that you will be educated in yet another quilting opportunity that might be of interest to you..

I was so happy to see such a great group at our last general meeting! We tended to lots of business and had an interesting speaker as well. I hope to see you all again at our March meeting!

Meeting Location and Time

Thank you All !!!

I want to thank everyone for taking the time to track your volunteer hours this past month. You turned in a total of 81 physical items with a total of 551.05 hours. This is amazing!

Please let me know if there is something I can do to make it easier to capture your hours.

I will be making a delivery to J.P.S. next week to deliver quilts and fidget mats. Again, thank you so much for your generosity.

FEBRUARY GUILD MEETING

Lisa Erlandson was amazing and very entertaining while giving her lecture on "Orphan Quilts – the Good, the Bad & the Ugly". Her quilts were amazing and I really enjoyed learning about Color, Composition, Scale, Texture, Unity, Repetition and Rhythm. Her website is www.lequilts.com if you want to learn more about her.

MARCH GUILD MEETING

In March we have a speaker and workshop. Trish Stuart is coming with a lecture called, "How to step out of the box" and a workshop titled, "Collage with a twist". An E-Blast is being sent out with a picture of the project we will be doing at the workshop. I expect to get a supply list in the near future. Plan to attend. It will be a fun time and a GREAT way to get to know fellow guild members. Trish has been to our guild in the past so many of you will remember her.

APRIL GUILD MEETING

In April Nancy Russel will give a lecture on, "Old McDonald Had a Barn Quilt". This sounds very interesting so plan to attend. Support our Guild!!

March Workshop

*Aleta Mayrose
1st VP Program/
Workshop Director*

Hi Everyone,

Trish Stuart is our March speaker and she just emailed to let me know that she will have various selections of projects for us, so we all do not have to do the same thing! That is exciting news for me. I do NOT know which projects she's bringing but there will be several to pick from.

So, sign up for the workshop. Just a reminder, cost $10 for members and $45 for non-members PLUS the Pay Pal charge (about $6.)

Call, text or email me to let me know if you will be attending the workshop.

Either way, please let me know ASAP if you will attend the workshop. It will be held at Susan Crow's building in NRH from 10:00 am to 3 or 4 pm:

Quilts of Valor

Beverly Douglas
Chair

Ladies, it's always time to be thinking about Quilt of Valor Nominees! And to make the process easier, I have created a Nomination Form, attached to this report. I will have them at meetings, and if you email me I can send you one (or more!) electronically.

As always, we need long arm quilters to finish our tops. Please let me know if you are willing. We supply the top and back but not the batting.

There have been a couple of questions that I would like to address:

Q: Can a Quilt of Valor be given to a surviving family member?

A: No, the Quilt of Valor Foundation, which makes the rules, says the mission is to honor and comfort living veterans.

Q: What is the difference between a patriotic quilt and a Quilt of Valor?

A: Not all Quilts of Valor have patriotic themes. "Quilt of Valor" is a copywrite of the Quilt of Valor Foundation, and any quilt with that designation must carry their label and abide by their rules. A Patriotic quilt is any quilt using traditional Americana fabrics and motifs, and can be given to anyone by anyone.

I hope this clears up any confusion. Please let me know if you have other questions and I'll try to find answers.

QUILT OF VALOR NOMINATION FORM

Thank you for nominating a veteran for a Quilt of Valor. Bear Creek Quilt Guild awards Quilts of Valor every November at the regular meeting. The following is information needed by the Quilt of Valor Committee prior to awarding a quilt.

HAS NOMINEE EVER RECEIVED A QUILT OF VALOR? IF YES, THEY ARE NOT ALLOWED ANOTHER.

NAME _____ BRANCH OF SERVICE _____

HIGHEST RANK _____ YEARS SERVED _____

DUTY STATIONS _____

OCCUPATION _____

AWARDS/COMMENDATIONS RECEIVED- -

HAS NOMINEE AGREED TO RECEIVE A QUILT OF VALOR? _____

WILL NOMINEE BE ABLE TO ATTEND THE NOVEMBER CEREMONY? _____

YOUR NAME AND CONTACT INFO _____

Some veterans refuse a quilt because they don't want something patriotic. For those veterans, the Quilt of Valor Committee has made non-patriotic themed quilts. Please let your nominee know if this is an issue. Be sure to let the Committee know if this is the case so they can be prepared.

Quilt Show

Beverly Douglas

SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS!!

North Texas Quilt Festival Information

By Beverly Douglas, 2nd VP

KEY INFORMATION:

DATE: August 17-19, 2023

PLACE: Irving Convention Center

Yes, it's time to get ready for the North Texas Quilt Festival, of which Bear Creek Quilt Guild is one of the sponsors. The theme this year is Soaring to New Heights. I hope you've been planning a quilt to enter. Entry forms will be available the end of March.

Miniquilt Auction: this is a big source of revenue for Bear Creek. The more entered, the more money we make. NEW RULE THIS YEAR: miniquilts in the show cannot also be in the auction. The logistics involved in identifying and moving those quilts around proved to be difficult in the past. However, you can enter a mini quilt in the show and plan to put the same quilt in the auction the next year. Or you may enter miniquilts only in the auction. Size matters; a miniquilt can be no smaller than 10 inches and no longer than 24 inches on a side. So between 10 x 10 and 24 x 24, or any variation in between. ANOTHER NEW RULE: miniquilts must have a distinct name. No more "mini 1, 2," etc, they must have a name that distinguishes them from every other quilt.

There is a new category! Wool has been separated out, mostly being used as applique, and at least 50% of the entire quilt fiber content needs to be wool. This makes it easier for the judges, which may in turn provide better results and feedback.

As always, we need volunteers, to assist with quilt drop off and pick up, hanging quilts, and many more duties. Many from our Guild have volunteered in the past, and maybe getting someone new and mentoring them would pass on that experience.

Keep track of and report the hours you spend making a quilt for auction, volunteering, etc. These hours help our Guild maintain its tax-exempt status and it's very important that we report them.

Stay tuned for more updates. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hello Fellow Quilters!

I am in the process of putting together our 2023 Directory! This is last call to get your name in. Otherwise, you will just be listed on our website only. Also, keep in mind, you can't attend our April retreat unless you are a member of the guild. If your membership isn't paid by the March meeting your name will be removed from the email distribution and you won't receive the new password for our website.

If you have a business or know someone who would like to advertise in our directory, please let me know. The advertising helps pay for our directory each year. If you are a Facebook user, please join our page. I post pictures, news about workshops, upcoming events, and so on.

February Meeting - 42 Members in Attendance (No Zoom call this month) Should be back in March!

Bear Creek Quilt Guild
Board Zoom Meeting Minutes

February 7, 2023

President, Vicky Kidd, opened the meeting at 6:31 pm on ZOOM with the following officers and members present: Vicky Kidd, Kathi Runyan, Kathy Longo, Aleta Mayrose, Pam Roark, Candy Frobish, Angela Hoss, Beverly Douglas, and JoAnne Sheppard. Vicky welcomed everyone to the meeting. January 2023 Board minutes were reviewed and motion to accept was made by Beverly Douglas, with a second by Aleta Mayrose, and the motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Tabled for next meeting.

Unfinished Business: (1) Discussion held regarding results of survey for number of retreats per year. Will table this discussion and continue with 2 retreats per year for now.

New Business:

Webmaster program- Jennifer Stewart, our new Webmaster, needs the Publisher software program to work on the guild website. Working with Mary Nalley, they researched what is needed, cost, etc. Cost will be $57.00. Motion was made by Kathi Runyan to approve paying the cost for this program, seconded by Beverly Douglas, and the motion passed.

Tippling the Parks and Recreation staff for our meetings- After much discussion, it was decided to defer and not do for now.

Bad weather cancellations- During periods of bad weather, it was discussed and decided that email notifications would go out if a guild meeting needs to be cancelled. If a speaker is scheduled for that meeting, then we would work to reschedule the speaker.

Texas Sales and Use tax permit- Vicky asked if there are any corrections to be made; treasurer will maintain it and correspondence will be through the guild mailbox address.

Quilting Bees- Vicky asked if there is any interest in forming new Bees; Pam reported there is no interest presently.

Sunshine and Shadows- Discussion regarding the purchase of get well and sympathy cards, and postage stamps for Linda McKinney to send as needed. All agreed this was a necessary purchase.

Snacks at meetings- Discussed and decided that individuals with a birthday in that meeting's month will be responsible to provide the snacks at that meeting. Water will be provided by the Board.

Clarification-Attendance on ZOOM does not count towards the perfect attendance drawing.

Volunteer hours- Vicky encouraged every member to be sure to report volunteer hours; especially important for maintaining 501(3)c status.

Committee Reports:

Beekeeper—None Communications—Nothing to report. Community Service—Nothing to report.

New Member Liaison—None Magazines— No report. Newsletter—No report. Membership—None

Show and Tell: None Opportunity: None Quilts of Valor: None

Quilt Show: Beverly Douglas reported that meetings for the quilt show planning have begun; the theme will be "Soaring to New Heights." There will be a new category for wool; Mini quilts need to have names for identification and not called, "mini quilt 1, mini quilt 2, etc." They can be entered into the show or the Mini Quilt Auction, but not both. If in the show, then they can be auctioned off the following year. More information and deadlines to follow.

Retreats: None Webmaster: None

Meeting adjourned at 7:26 pm.

Next Guild Member meeting: February 21, 2023, at 7:00pm.

Next Guild Board meeting : NO MARCH BOARD MEETING

Respectfully submitted by Kathy Longo, BCQG Secretary

Bear Creek Quilt Guild
Member In-Person/Zoom Meeting Minutes
Bessie Mitchell House Grapevine, Texas
February 21, 2023

Vicky Kidd opened the meeting and welcomed everyone to the Bessie Mitchell House in Grapevine, Texas at 7:00pm. There were 42 members, 2 guests, and 2 new members in attendance. JoAnne Sheppard welcomed the guests and new members. January Member meeting minutes were reviewed, and a motion to accept the minutes was made by Kathi Runyan, seconded by Angela Hoss, and the motion passed. Betty Reisch shared with us her photo of her quilt in the recent Quiltmaker magazine and encouraged everyone to submit their quilts for publication as well.

Treasurer's Report: Selena Woodward tabled for next month.

Unfinished Business: Board voted to table the issue of the guild sponsoring 1 or 2 retreats per year as the survey results were inconclusive. Will continue with 2 retreats this year and will revisit when there is a need.

New Business:

Webmaster program- Jennifer Stewart, our new Webmaster, needs the Publisher software program to work on the guild website. Working with Mary Nalley, they researched what is needed, cost, etc. Cost will be $57.00. Board passed the motion to pay for the program.

Bad weather cancellations- During periods of bad weather, it was discussed and decided that email notifications would go out if a guild general meeting needs to be cancelled. If a speaker is scheduled for that meeting, then we would work to reschedule the speaker.

Quilting Bees- Vicky asked if there is any interest in forming new Bees; Pam reported there is no interest presently. If there is an interest in short term Bees for specific projects or free sewing time, please let Pam Roark know, especially if you need assistance in starting one.

Sunshine and Shadows- Linda Mc Kinney is the new Chairperson. Please let her know if someone needs a little sunshine from us. Her contact info is in the directory.

Snacks at meetings- Going forward, individuals with a birthday in that meeting's month will be asked to be responsible to provide the snacks at that meeting. Birthday people may coordinate with each other what to bring or to not participate at all. Water will be provided by the Board.

Clarification-Attendance on ZOOM does not count towards the "Near Perfect Attendance" drawing; 11 in person meeting attendance times are required.

Volunteer hours- Vicky encouraged every member to be sure to report volunteer hours via email to Deb Heid; especially important for maintaining 501(3)c status. Hours for volunteering at the quilt show, making Project Linus quilts, making Gatehouse quilt donations all count. Gatehouse quilt donations are needed, check the website for information on requirements.

Committee Reports:

Programs: Aleta announced the March speaker will be Trish Stuart. She has a workshop she will be presenting as well, titled, "Collage with a Twist;" cost is $10.00 per member. Everyone is encouraged to sign up and attend.

Quilt Show: Beverly Douglas reported that meetings for the quilt show planning have begun; the theme will be "Soaring to New Heights." It is to be held at the Irving Convention Center August 17-19, 2023. Please start thinking about entering. There will be a new category for wool; Mini quilts need to have names for identification and not called, "mini quilt 1, mini quilt 2, etc." They can be entered into the show or the Mini Quilt Auction, but not both. If in the show, then they can be auctioned off the following year. More information and deadlines to follow.

Boutique: Kayleen Allen asked members to start thinking of items to make and sell at the quilt show in August.

Quilts of Valor: Beverly also reported that she has created a form for nominees; 1 nomination form per person; please make nominations using this form and make sure nominee has never received a QOV quilt. Longarmers and batting donations are needed. Membership: None

Retreats—Mona Levingston reported the BCQG Retreat is coming up. Being held at Sunset Retreat April 13-16, 2023, for $250.00. There are 18 registrants so far. Please sign up with Mona and let her know if you are interested in scheduling a massage or not.

Show and Tell items presented.

Door prizes given out.

The next BCQG member meeting – March 21, 2023, at 7pm, at Bessie Mitchell House.

The next BCQG Board meeting – NO MARCH BOARD MEETING

Business Meeting adjourned at 7:57pm; Presentation by Lisa Erlandson ended at 8:30pm.
