The President's Message

*Kathi Runyan,
BCQG President*

New Meeting Location and Time

Bessie Mitchell House
411 Ball Street
Grapevine
Texas 76051

Guild meetings begin with social time from 6:30-7:00. Meetings start at 7:00.

President's Message

Summer's here! I hope you were able to join us at our May meeting, it was one of my favorites from recent past. I knew when I met Jeriann Massey, creator of Annie McHugs, that she would be a perfect fit for our group. Her quilts are so inspiring. I did, of course, take the workshop and so many new ideas are running through my head. There is just not enough time to sit down and sew non-stop lately, but I'm working on it.

I hope you're enjoying my articles on retreat places. Looking back it's hard to believe I've been to so many. A few of them have closed.. One of my favorites, Rayline's Retreat was a sweet little house that was a perfect fit for my growing bee. Broken K has also closed recently, it was one of the newest and brightest stars of local retreat centers.

I recently got the email from the Expo to sign up for classes and I did so immediately. In the past, I would wait, thinking it over for a bit and then the classes I wanted were full. Speaking of which, the portal to volunteer for the Expo volunteers is open on the show website. Again, sign up early to get the shifts and days you want before they fill up. Remember, the Expo looks for volunteers. Also, there are positions open with the guilds to lend a hand including set up, take down, and a few other guest relations spots.

I'm hoping the pot luck and scrap challenge will be a lot of fun this month. Sorry I won't be there to enjoy with everyone, but I'll still be having fun at the KT & Friends Retreat in Kansas! See you in July.

Happy Quilting,

Kathi

May Program

May Guild Meeting /Workshop Presenter

If you missed the May Guild Meeting and the Workshop you really missed out! Jerriann was so entertaining and her workshop was a blast. Look for pictures in the newsletter because someone took pictures.

June

Our next Guild meeting is Tuesday, June 21, 2022 and it's our Pot Luck meeting along with voting on our Scrap Color Challenge. I hope your project is ready! Win the BIG PRIZE MONEY! $75 for 1st place, $50 for 2nd place and $25 for 3rd place. Also, if you're putting your project in the Quilt Show Auction, the size needs to be limited to "nothing bigger than 24 inches square" and "nothing smaller than 10 inches square". Due to limited space at this June meeting we will not have "Show & Tell, Opportunity Table, Magazine Swap, or anything that will require a table (except for the sign-in table). More room for snacks!

July

Our July Meeting will include a Lecture with Workshop by Carol Morrissey. She's been to our Guild before and everyone loved her! She will be doing a lecture on Practical Color Theory for Quilters with a workshop called Thread Painting. More info later but be sure to sign up on the signup sheet. Cost will be $10 for guild members. Non-members will be $45 plus the pay pal charge. We're hoping to be able to use the same workshop location at 6709 Meadow Crest Dr, NRH, TX . but that might not happen due to a previous commitment. Will keep you posted.

August

For the August Guild Meeting we have speaker Laura Winckel and her program, "From Trash to Treasure". More on this as the time approaches.

Calling all Members,

- Time is running out for entries for the Mini-Quilt Auction. It closes on June 15. Auction items must be turned into me by June 30. There is no entry fee for auction items. All entries must be submitted online at <https://www.sewingexpo.com/Events/Dallas-TX/NTQF-Auction-Entry-Form-2022>. Be sure and print out your entry form and include it with your quilt. Remember that the mini quilt auction brings money to the Guild to help with programs.

For your convenience, I have a tub on my front porch marked Mini Quilt. You can place your entry in there and I will check daily.

My address is:

5513 Rustic Trail

Colleyville, TX 76034

- Volunteers are needed. Remember this is our only fund raiser for the year. Please go to <https://www.sewingexpo.com/Events/Dallas-TX/Volunteer> and sign up today as an Expo Ambassador. If you volunteer at least 4 hours you can get a free entrance ticket.

Quilts of Valor

Beverly Douglas

The Quilt of Valor Committee is asking for members to bring red, white or cream, or blue 2 ½ " WOF strips to the July meeting. We have a new pattern to make (which the committee will do) and we thought the Guild would like to be included by providing the strips required. We are making this scrappy so don't worry about whether colors match. Any red, blue, or either white or cream strips would be welcome. Thanks so much!

Sunshine and Shadows

Linn Jencopale

One of our newer members, Lory Garrett, has been diagnosed with cancer. She has stage 4 lung cancer which has spread to her back and bones. She is having radiation treatments and Immunotherapy.

She needs our prayers and support. If you would like to send her a card, it might cheer her up. If you have time, put a card in the mail to her.

Like Michelle says " It doesn't matter if you are new to the guild or never met her. She is one of us ".

WHY DID YOU BECOME A GUILD MEMBER?

I have been a Bear Creek Quilt Guild member since 2005. When I joined, I didn't even know what a guild was. I had to google it! LOL! After reading what it was, I thought it was something I wanted to check out. I was still new to quilting and I was hoping to learn more about quilting and make some new friends. I have to say that I got that and so much more out of becoming a member. I learned in order to get to know people I needed to get involved. My first duty was taking the raffle quilt to other guilds to sell tickets. Then I started the Magazine table and the Free (Opportunity) Table. I eventually became President and served four years. I'm now in my second year as Membership Chair. I have made some of the best friends, learned so much, and had the best times since becoming a member. This is why I joined the guild!

So, how about you? Why did you join? Speakers and workshops? Make new friends? Enter quilts in our quilt show? Retreats? All those are great reasons to join but if you want even more, volunteer to be a Board Member or Chairperson. Please think about getting involved. I can tell you the Guild runs on Volunteers! It's the best way to get to know people and help the guild continue to grow. There are going to be several open positions on the Board in 2022. There are chair positions that will need to be filled as well. None of the positions are hard and they can be fun! You also don't have to do them alone. There is always someone to help guide you if you need it.

Also, please consider entering a quilt in our August Quilt Show! This is our time to shine! You are all so talented and we want to show everyone how good we are! I know the thought of your quilt being judged is scary to some of you and believe me, I understand. However, they aren't saying anything bad about your quilt, they just telling you things that help improve skills for entering future quilts. We also need Volunteers to work at the show.

So, please get involved in our guild and make it better!

Membership Chairperson

Suzanne shared at the spring retreat a couple of household items she has found to be helpful in her sewing room. The Drawer divider help to keep her cut strips organized!

She uses a Silicone pastry mat under her sewing machine so it won't slide on her table.

New Exhibits Showcase A Rhapsody, a Menagerie, and some Top Winners!

May 2, 2022—LA GRANGE, TEXAS—This spring and summer will bring three very different and exciting exhibits to the Texas Quilt Museum, celebrating the work of two extremely talented individuals and the prizewinning efforts of others!

On display from May 12-September 18, 2022 will be Ricky Tims: A Rhapsody of Quilts*, Timna Tarr's Noble Menagerie, and Quilt Festival Prizewinners 2021.

In Gallery III, Ricky Tims: A Rhapsody of Quilts presents 11 pieces highly regarded as excellent examples of contemporary quilt art with traditional appeal. Tims is also a renowned musician, and many of his quilts have musical references. As he was working on Bohemian Rhapsody using hand-dyed fabrics, the composition developed with a very Eastern European flare. The rhythmic movement and harmonious shapes in this quilt encouraged the artist to design and make an entire series of Rhapsody Quilts, which resulted in his book of the same title.

Bohemian Rhapsody* (90" x 90") by Ricky Tims.

Our exhibition also includes his Lifelines III: Can Something Come from Nothing?, awarded first place category prize at an International Quilt Association judged show. Museum Curator, Dr. Sandra Sider, comments, "If you have missed seeing the amazing quilts by Ricky Tims at Houston, this is your chance to see an astonishing collection!" A special Museum-produced monograph will also be available for purchase.

Gallery II will showcase 12 works in Timna Tarr's Noble Menagerie. Tarr, who resides in Massachusetts, comes from a long line of quilters but did not begin quilting until after studying art history in college.

Lady Teela of Amherst (38" x 38") by Timna

Her own work is chiefly about color, in relatively small-format compositions. What keeps her engaged is watching how her projects change and transform with the addition of each color and texture.

Timna Tarr's Noble Menagerie began as a way for Tarr to explore making quasi-realistic fabric portraits of farm animals. Moving through the series, she realized that the images highlight the dignity and individual personalities in each animal, reflected in her highly original titles. The construction process starts with a blown-up photograph and ends with her piecing together the eye. Tarr explains that she needs to get to know each animal before tackling "the window to he soul."

Finally, Gallery I will present Festival Prizewinners 2021, featuring 11 stunning quilts from makers who won prizes in the inaugural Festival Judged Show in a variety of categories and styles.

Showcasing exquisite hand and machine stitching, the designs include abstract, pictorial, and geometric compositions. The makers are Marilyn Badger, Judith Beaver, Andrea Brokenshire, Audrey Esarey, Chizuko Ito, Jill Kerttula, Karen Lambdin, Kestrel Michaud, Sue Sherman, Chinami Terai, and Joann Webb. This juxtaposition of art quilts with contemporary traditional styles celebrates the exciting gamut of quiltmaking today.

Happy June Everyone!

A BIG thank you to JoAnne Sheppard (and the Ladies of Keller First Baptist Church), Betty Reisch and everyone else who dropped off quilts at the Guild meeting last week. Because of your generosity, I was able to deliver 30 quilts to J.P.S. yesterday. They were absolutely delighted when I handed the quilts over. Thank you all again for having such big hearts!

Finally, don't forget to track your volunteer hours and send them to me via email or at our guild meetings.

Retreat Round-up

Kathi Runyan

Next on my review list is Welcome Home Retreat Center in Weatherford, TX. I've been here a number of times and do enjoy it. There are quite a few separate sewing spaces and bedrooms, so depending on how many are in your group, your assigned spaces could be different every time you visit. This is a full service retreat, so meals are included. And, best of all, there is no minimum. So if you are in the mood to get away from it all and have a long weekend of sewing, call them and book your spot! Bring a few friends, or go by yourself!

What they say: Located in North Texas, Welcome Home Retreat is a ladies crafting retreat just 3 miles south of Weatherford, Texas off Tin Top Road. We are on 6 acres of ranch land bordered by a creek on the east side and a large pond on the west. Our neighbors include longhorn cattle who are curing about guests across their fence and plenty of wildlife such as chickens, turkeys, road-runners and an occasional deer. You may even get to meet Hamlet the pig out on one of his walks. Guests can enjoy an afternoon on the porch in lazy rocking chairs or sit in the courtyard contemplating the beauty and sounds of nature. When that relaxing moment changes, guests can move to the hot tub adjoining the pool for a refreshing dip.

What I say: I've been here with a group of 8 and a team of 2 and a few numbers in between. All of the sewing spaces are open, comfortable and climate controlled. There are bedrooms with 4 or 5 beds and one large dormitory room with more than 7 beds, not so bad if it's just 5 of you to share one room, but more than that and the bathroom situation is a bit dicey! The sewing rooms are equipped with ample design walls and normally there is at least a small fridge for your extra goodies. I'm a sucker for a pool situation and the hot tub is a delightful bonus. Costs are very reasonable as well, a Fri-Sun stay is $240...with meals! You can add on a no frills Thursday for only $15. There are plenty of restaurants within just a few miles. They have plenty of snacks, a microwave and tea, water and coffee available. BEST OF ALL, Gibsons is a short drive from here, so if you are in the market for some great fabric or motor oil...you can get it there and get back to sewing in no time. Also, this retreat caters to crafters, scrapbooking is big here too and there are plenty of lovely supplies and tools available for your use while you are there. If you reserve a spot for just yourself, you may end up working in a craft room with a scrap book maker. I think it's great to diversify!

Bear Creek Quilt Guild
Board Zoom Meeting Minutes
May 4, 2022

President, Kathi Runyan opened the meeting at 6:30 pm on ZOOM with the following officers and members present: Kathi Runyan, Kay Thomas, Kyle Mills, Kathy Longo, JoAnne Sheppard, Aleta Mayrose, and Michelle Lewis. Kathi welcomed everyone to the meeting. April Board minutes were reviewed and motion to accept minutes as amended was made by Aleta Mayrose with a second by Kay Thomas, and the motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Kyle Mills reported an income of $517.50 (to include member dues and retreat fees), and disbursements of $6710.65 (for retreat, directory, and tax prep costs) for a net loss of -$6193.15.

Unfinished Business: None noted.

New Business:

Meeting Attendance Improvement suggestions: Kathi Runyan asked for suggestions on improving attendance at the guild meetings. She stated she wanted to try different things to make the meetings more fun and to boost attendance. At the next meeting she will bring some snacks and door prizes for in person attendees at the May meeting. Other suggestions discussed were a 50/50 raffle, a block exchange with different themes, light refreshments etc. More to follow.

Website Review: Michelle recommended that the member directory be added to the new website as it presently is not on there. It would be under the member only access and a cost of $50.00 would be incurred. This is only for members who give permission to share their information. Motion to spend the $50.00 for this addition to the website was made by Michelle Lewis, seconded by Kyle Mills, and motion passed. Also discussed recommendation of guild to have control of website since we do not presently and are up for renewal in October. More to follow.

NTQF show update: Kay Thomas reported that quilt entry registration is open to everyone. Presently, only 70 quilts total have been registered as of last week. Participation is highly encouraged.

May speaker/workshop: Aleta reported that the supply list for May's workshop will be emailed to participants and more spots are available for those who want to attend. There are 12 attendees so far. Location information has been sent out with tables, chairs, and extension plugs for use. Aleta asked for suggestions on how to set up the June Potluck and Rainbow Challenge meeting at the Bessie Mitchell house. Tables could be set up for eating, with separate table for mini quilt judging.

Member In-Person/Zoom Meeting Minutes
Bessie Mitchell House Grapevine, Texas
May 17, 2022

Kathi Runyan opened the meeting and welcomed everyone to our meeting at the Bessie Mitchell House in Grapevine, Texas at 7:00pm. There were 35 in person attendees, 7 visitors, and 5 attendees on Zoom. April Member meeting minutes were reviewed, and a motion to accept the minutes as amended was made by Deborah Kay, seconded by Nancy Carr, and the motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: As of the end of April Kyle Mills reported an income of $517.50 (mostly from member dues and retreat fees) , disbursements of $6710.65 (for retreat, directory, and tax prep costs) for a net loss of $6193.15.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business:

Guild meeting attendance: The Board discussed ways to improve attendance at the meetings. Tonight, we had light refreshments and some snacks. There were door prizes, one for every 10 members in attendance as well.

Website update: We are adding the membership directory to the website under the members only portion. This makes finding a member's address or phone number easier to access in case you have misplaced or don't have your directory with you.

NTQF show update: Kay Thomas reported that quilt entry registration is open to all until June 1st; mini quilt registration is open until June 15th. Email blasts have been sent out and info is posted on the website. Information is already out in the newsletter. As of this date, there are 147 total quilts registered, only 16 from Bear Creek; 36 total mini quilts registered and only 8 are from Bear Creek. Time is running out and everyone is encouraged to enter a quilt. There will also be signups for volunteers who are needed.

Speakers/Workshops Update: Aleta reported the June meeting will be our annual Potluck dinner featuring your scrap color challenge mini quilt. Voting will be at the meeting. Prizes will be awarded, and tables will be setup for eating at. There will be no Show and Tell, nor Opportunity table at this meeting. The July meeting will feature Carol Morrisey as our speaker on her topic, "Practical Color Theory for Quilts," and her workshop the next day on "Thread Painting." Sign up sheets are here tonight. Cost will be $10.00 for members. The August meeting speaker will be Laura Winkle, presenting her topic, "From Trash to Treasure." More to follow. For tomorrow's workshop with tonight's speaker, Jerriann Massey, there are spaces still available if you are interested.

Open discussion:

Mona Levingston announced the guild's fall retreat will be September 22- September 25, 2022, at Red Boot. More information to come.

Chris Sizemore encouraged everyone to enter their quilts into the Quilt Show. She asked everyone to please not let negative thinking keep you from entering.

Quilts of Valor—Beverly Douglas thanked everyone for their block making assistance and to be sure and turn them into her by June. She has two longarmers (Susan Turk/Deborah Kay)who are volunteering their skills to help quilt the QOV quilts and is looking for more volunteers. Mona Levingston also volunteered. Please let Beverly know if you are interested in helping.
