President's Message

WHAT?? November is already here, this year has really moved quickly and it looks like you are stuck with me for another year!

I'm so glad so many of you were able to enjoy the "Bee Organized" presentation, either at the meeting or online for our October meeting. Sure is a lot to think about with clutter and memories...and where does it fit in my life! I would definitely classify myself as a collector of fabric, but it's honestly moving toward hoarding, and I'm sure I'm not alone! Congrats to Marilyn Cox on winning the consultation and makeover...we want before and after pictures!!

I've been working on a few Christmas gifts and have one last retreat (for now) planned before the holiday really gets here. There's always room for more! Do you set goals for holiday gifts or do they just happen as the time approaches? I don't think I really set out to make a quilt or quilted gift each year, but somehow I manage to put together only one or two that I designate for a gift that 'has' to get done each year. It's a little less stressful that way and I keep the pressure off myself.

Our next two meetings should be fun and eventful. The Quilt of Valor Quilters have presentations in November and for December we will gather and enjoy each other's company with a holiday dessert break! If you'd like to participate in an exchange at the December meeting, bring a one yard cut of material or 4 fat quarters in a wrapped package for a fun swap!

May you all have a healthy and Happy Thanksgiving.
Kathi

November Program

VETERANS DAY

Quilts of Valor will be presented at our November 19th meeting. We will be presenting 5 quilts to 5 deserving veterans. We hope to see you at the meeting to honor our vets.

December

The December Guild Meeting has been moved to the 2nd Tuesday of December instead of the 3rd Tuesday, since that week is so close to Christmas. PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDAR THAT BCQG WILL MEET DEC 14, 2021. December is usually our Christmas Pot Luck but this year it will be Dessert finger food sharing. There's just not enough room to set up pot luck tables at the Hills Church location. So, bring your favorite dessert finger food, like cookies, etc.

January

Our January meeting, location unknown at this time, will be Ann Cardon and her lecture on Dating Fabric by Color. I hope everyone will be able to attend and enjoy fellowship with fellow quilters.

Please Note: We will continue to meet at the Hills Church on 820 through this year.

Community Service

Debra Heid

Wishing everyone a Happy Thanksgiving! I am definitely looking forward to seeing my family this year. So much to be thankful for.

I was able to make a trip to JPS and dropped off 28 children's quilts, 7 receiving blankets and hats and scarves for newborns and children. With the cooler weather on the way it was most appreciated. Thank you all for your generous donations.

This month, the organization I want to recognize is the Red Scarf Project. (fc2success.org.red-scarf-project). This project supports young adults in the foster care system as they transition to college. Think about when your son or daughter went off to college, the number of care packages you sent so they didn't feel lonely. These young adults don't have that support that your children had. While this charity mostly targets crocheters and knitters, you can also help in other ways - so please check out their website. They are looking for hand made red scarves 60" long and 5" to 8" wide, Keep in mind scarves are only accepted between September 1 and December 15 since storage space is limited. So if you can't mail by the December cutoff, hold onto the scarf and send them next year. Special thanks to Judy Goldthorp for bringing this charity to my attention.

October 5, 2021, Bear Creek Quilt Guild Board Zoom Meeting Minutes

President, Kathi Runyan opened the meeting at 6:36 pm on ZOOM with the following officers and members present: Kathi Runyan, Nancy Carr, Kay Thomas, Kyle Mills, Kathy Longo, JoAnne Sheppard, Aleta Mayrose, Susan Turk, Betty Reisch, Michelle Lewis, Vicky Kidd, Mary Nalley, Kayleen Allen, Pam Roark, Mona Levingston, Angela Haas, and Candy Frobish. Kathi welcomed everyone to the meeting. September Board minutes were reviewed and motion to accept was made by Aleta Mayrose, with a second by Kay Thomas, and the motion passed.

Treasurer's Report:

Kyle Mills presented the 2022 proposed Budget draft for review and discussion. Updates and amendments were recommended. Kyle Mills will update confirmed changes to the draft and resend out for Board review. After noted updates, Nancy Carr made a motion to accept the BCQG 2022 Budget as presented by Kyle Mills, Treasurer, to present to the Guild members at the October Guild meeting for a vote.

To continue newsletter publishing, it was discussed that new publishing licenses need to be purchased this year for Candy Frobish and Kathi Runyan at Microsoft Publisher for a discount. After discussion, Nancy Carr made a motion to purchase this licensing at $67.00 from Microsoft Publishing, seconded by Aleta Mayrose, and the motion passed. Kathi Runyan will find out the numbers of licenses allowed.

Unfinished Business:

Celebrate Roanoke—Celebrate Roanoke takes place this Saturday, on October 9, 2021, from 12p-9pm. The Guild will sell donated items, and leftover boutique items. The focus is to be on the history of quilting, and/or educational aspects of quilting. It is a great way to get Bear Creek Quilt Guild out to the community. There is no cost to us. Kathi Runyan will check on Wi-Fi access, and volunteers are needed to work in shifts. Volunteers are asked to be there by 11 am to assist with setting up the booth.

Nominating committee--Nominating committee chair, Nancy Carr, reported they have a slate for the Executive Board for next year, and nominees were announced in the October 2021 newsletter for consideration. At the October member meeting, nominations from the floor will be accepted, and voting will take place at the November General Member meeting. Officers will take over their new roles at the end of December General Member meeting. Nancy reported that Beth Gerth and Vicky Kidd are interested in chairing the New Member Liaison committee. The Webmaster committee Chair position is still open and interested individuals should let the nominating committee and/or Kathi Runyan know.

New Business:

October Guild meeting drawing-- Discussion regarding how to handle the drawing for the sewing room organization prize occurred. All member names will be added automatically, names will be checked off the attendance list as members arrive at the Guild meeting to be added again, and if members bring a guest, their names will be added again for chances to win. The prize is a sewing room organization package from Jackie Olson of Bee Organized.

December Guild meeting—Due to limited spacing issues for our meetings, a suggestion was made by Kathi Runyan to hold a dessert buffet with finger food dessert items for the December member meeting. Also, to play holiday music and do a fabric gift exchange. Members will be asked to bring a 1 yard cut of any fabric in a brown paper bag to exchange. Board was in agreement.

Guild programs: Aleta Mayrose reminded everyone that the speaker in October, will be Jackie Olson of Bee Organized, with a sewing room organization giveaway; and in November, four Quilts of Valor will be presented to four recipients.

Committee Reports:

Beekeeper—None. Communications—Nothing to report.

Community Service—Nothing to report. New Member Liaison—Nothing to report.

Magazines— No report. Newsletter—No report. Membership—None

October 19, 2021

President, Kathi Runyan, opened the meeting and welcomed everyone in person and on Zoom at 7:03 pm to the meeting. Kathi R. recognized guests and those attending for the first time; if you are new, please let us know so we can welcome you. The September 2021 Guild member meeting minutes were reviewed and a motion to accept was made by Aleta Mayrose, seconded by Beverly Douglas, and motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Report tabled until next month's Guild member meeting.

2nd VP Report: Aleta Mayrose announced the speaker for tonight was Jackie Olson of Bee Organized, presenting a program on sewing room organization, and a complete sewing room makeover will be raffled off to one lucky winner! Quilts of Valor will be presented at the November meeting, and December's meeting is planned for a dessert sharing experience. December's meeting is scheduled for December 14, 2021.

Unfinished Business:

Celebrate Roanoke—Bear Creek Quilt Guild participated in and sponsored an educational booth at this year's Celebrate Roanoke event on October 9, 2021, 12pm-9pm. We sold surplus boutique items to the public, provided demonstrations on hand quilting and piecing, and provided some historical quilting facts to the public. Kathi Runyan thanked all volunteers who made this event a success. The guild made approximately $388.00 from last month's sales at the meeting and this event combined.

New Business:

Nominating Committee—Kathi Runyan reported the Nominating committee has compiled a slate of officers for the upcoming election. Nominees were announced and listed in the newsletter. When asked, there were no other nominations from the floor. Confirmation of nominees were completed at this meeting tonight; voting will be at the November meeting. There is still one committee chair open—we still need a chair volunteer for Webmaster. Please let Kathi R. and/or Nancy C. know if you are interested.

Guild Budget 2022—Paper copies of the 2022 BCQG budget were distributed at the meeting for members to review. If there are any additional questions, please address them with Kyle Mills or Kathi Runyan. Please be ready to vote on the 2022 BCQG budget at the November meeting.

December Guild meeting—Due to limited spacing issues for our meetings, Kathi Runyan announced the guild will hold a dessert buffet with finger food dessert items for the December 14th member meeting instead of a potluck. Also, holiday music will be played, and a fabric gift exchange is planned. Members are asked to bring a 1 yard cut of any fabric in a bag to exchange.

Committee Reports:

Deb Heid reported at the end of September, she delivered to JPS:
28 children's quilts, 7 receiving blankets, and 37 hats/scarves.

All donations were greatly appreciated. Deb also reported JPS has a need for diapers and wipes. They greatly need of these items. All donations are appreciated.

Check the October newsletter for information on the highlighted "Dolls of Hope" organization, and how you can help.

Kathi announced there were lots of free magazines to be had at this meeting, so please take one home.
Show and Tell items were presented.

The next BCQG member meeting is scheduled for November 16, 2021, at 7pm, The Hills Church

The next BCQG Board meeting is scheduled for November 2, 2021, 6:30pm on ZOOM.

Business meeting adjourned at 7:20pm.

Aleta Mayrose introduced the evening's speaker, Jackie Olson, from Bee Organized, and her program, "Simplify Your Hive." The winner of the sewing room organization was Marilyn Cox!

Congratulations Marilyn!! The program concluded at 8:15pm.

Respectfully submitted by Kathy Longo, BCQG Secretary
