Treasurer's Report: Report tabled until next month's Guild member meeting.

2nd VP Report: Aleta Mayrose announced the speaker for tonight was Jackie Olson of Bee Organized, presenting a program on sewing room organization, and a complete sewing room makeover will be raffled off to one lucky winner! Quilts of Valor will be presented at the November meeting, and December's meeting is planned for a dessert sharing experience. December's meeting is scheduled for December 14, 2021.

Unfinished Business:

- 1) Celebrate Roanoke—Bear Creek Quilt Guild participated in and sponsored an educational booth at this year's Celebrate Roanoke event on October 9, 2021, 12pm-9pm. We sold surplus boutique items to the public, provided demonstrations on hand quilting and piecing, and provided some historical quilting facts to the public. Kathi Runyan thanked all volunteers who made this event a success. The guild made approximately $388.00 from last month's sales at the meeting and this event combined.

New Business:

- 1) Nominating Committee—Kathi Runyan reported the Nominating committee has compiled a slate of officers for the upcoming election. Nominees were announced and listed in the newsletter. When asked, there were no other nominations from the floor. Confirmation of nominees were completed at this meeting tonight; voting will be at the November meeting. There is still one committee chair open—we still need a chair volunteer for Webmaster. Please let Kathi R. and/or Nancy C. know if you are interested.
- 2) Guild Budget 2022—Paper copies of the 2022 BCQG budget were distributed at the meeting for members to review. If there are any additional questions, please address them with Kyle Mills or Kathi Runyan. Please be ready to vote on the 2022 BCQG budget at the November meeting.
- 3) December Guild meeting—Due to limited spacing issues for our meetings, Kathi Runyan announced the guild will hold a dessert buffet with finger food dessert items for the December 14th member meeting instead of a potluck. Also, holiday music will be played, and a fabric gift exchange is planned. Members are asked to bring a 1 yard cut of any fabric in a bag to exchange.
