President's Message

Fun Facts about February!!

It is the third month of winter. In the Southern Hemisphere February is a summer month the equivalent of August. Together with January, it was the last of the months added to the Roman calendar. No mention of cupid or love notes!! Just the facts.

I like learning new things and thought I'd share this with you! Now, more importantly, I'm looking forward to some retreats I intend to attend this month and still holding out hope that we will get to gather this year. I thoroughly enjoyed our guild meeting with Judy Steward last month; she sure filled us up with her tips and tricks. I learned a lot about the applique process! I'm really looking forward to hearing Karen Stone speak this month. I hounded her for more than a year when I was the Program Chair and I'm glad that I will finally get to see her work in person and hear about her quilting journey.

What are you looking forward to? Are you the type of person to make resolutions, or did you pick a meaningful word for the year? Whatever your way, I hope something creative is a regular part of your life and that it continues to bring you joy! Consider joining the board members at our next meeting to stay informed and bring us your ideas. Looking forward to it!

Kathi

ANNIVERSARY MEMORIES

In celebration of the Guild's 30th Anniversary, I thought I'd find out a little about our Charter members, long time members and former officers! I'm hoping to offer a little insight in interview style and then as the articles are published, you can see what makes each of us unique! My first lady of Bear Creek is Barb Chamblee. Questions by BC (Bear Creek), answers by BARB! It might get confusing if I used BC for both!!

I hope you enjoy a glimpse at the past and look forward to future articles about our interesting membership.

30th Anniversary
Interview
Kathi Runyan

Barb Chamblee

Barbara Chamblee, Charter Member BCQG

BC: Why did you join the guild and what did you expect to gain from it?

BARB: I wanted to meet other quilters and learn new techniques.

BC: Have your goals in joining been met?

BARB: Yes!

BC: What is your favorite style of quilt/quilting and has it changed throughout the years?

BARB: I am more of a traditional quilter. I used to hand quilt everything until my hands wore out. Also, I had too many tops to quilt so I went to machine/longarm quilting

BC: Name one singular event or project from your time as a guild member that has pleased you the most.

BARB: During my 2nd term as President the Guild had their very first Quilt Show!

BC: Who is most inspirational to you in your quilting?

BARB: I loved Irma Gail Hatcher

BC: Have you held any positions in the guild and what were they?

BARB: President and Retreat Chair

Who is Irma Gail Hatcher and why did she inspire Barb?

Irma Gail was born in Fort Worth, Texas and has lived throughout the country before settling in Conway, Arkansas.

Irma Gail, a former elementary school teacher, began quilting by making a small pot holder at a craft meeting she attended in Michigan in September, 1980. In October she went to her first quilt shop and bought fabric to make quilts for her mother and sister for Christmas. Needless to say, she had some difficulty finishing them in time, but she did it. When her mother opened her present, she gasped, "Oh, your stitches are so big!" Irma Gail decided then that she didn't have to make quilts; she could do other things.

After her family moved to Arkansas, Irma Gail attended a quilt show in 1981, and life changed then and there when she fell in love with quilts. Her first quilt was made for daughter, Gailyn, in 1982, and she has been making quilts ever since. She has won numerous ribbons. She teaches classes and lectures nationally and her quilts have appeared on magazine covers and inside many books and magazines. Hatcher's quilts feature intricate design and an attention to detail, sometimes requiring over a year to complete.

Her quilt, "Conway Album (I'm Not From Baltimore)," won the 1992 Founder's Award and a blue ribbon at the A/IQA show in Houston. In 1993 it won blue ribbons in Dallas, Silver Dollar City, and Riverside, CA, and Best of Show at Quilt America! In 1994 it won AQS's Gingher Award for excellence in workmanship and $10,000, becoming a part of the MAQS museum collection. In 1995 it qualified as a NQA Masterpiece Quilt, and was on exhibit as one of the 100 Best American Quilts of the 20th Century at the 1999 Houston Quilt festival with the others. It is featured on the cover of the book.

Workshop Director

2021 Programs

Our January BCQG meeting was held through Zoom on Jan. 19 and was a success. We had Judy Steward and her "Tips & Tricks" lecture. I came away with several ideas, including one that I used yesterday while making new masks. It was using a paper towel roll to iron curves! Wonderful!

February we will have Karen Stone with her Trunk Show. She is internationally known and an award winner many times over for her magnificent designs and unusual use of texture and color. She has appeared on covers of Quilters' Newsletter Magazine and on catalogs. We can "Zoom" in on that beautiful work! Her website is being redesigned, but you can type her name into Pinterest and see previews.

March will bring us Patricia Smith and her lecture on Precision Piecing.

April will be Amy Hurst and her Wool lecture. If we are less restricted by Covid, she will have a workshop. However, that seems highly unlikely at this time.

All lectures are expected to be on Zoom. Aren't we grateful that we have this application to use while we're confined by Covid?!

Thank you to everyone for supporting our guild during this difficult time.

Aleta Mayrose, VP Lectures/Workshops

Outings/Retreats

2021 Spring Retreat – Sunset – April 8-11

Our next retreat is April 8-11 at Sunset Retreat in Sunset, Texas. I called the manager to understand all the rules during these pandemic times and some have changed from last year. As of today, they are requesting you bring your own pillow, bed sheets, quilts/blankets, bath towel and wash cloths. She said that many retreaters bring sleeping bags instead of bringing bedding items. They request not to move the tables since they will all be 6 feet apart when they set up (or return the tables when you leave). They also request you wear a mask when not at your workstation. There will not be any massages during our time since the venue does not allow it.

If you are interested, please email me at susanturk182@hotmail.com since the first 22 will be admitted with a minimum of 18. The total cost is $265.00 for Thursday thru Sunday. Please make a check made out to Bear Creek Quilt Guild and mail to my house at:

Susan Turk
912 Fairway Ranch Pkwy
Roanoke, TX 76262

Email or call me (214-236-7975) if you need to make other arrangements for payment.

2021 Fall Retreat – Red Boot – Sept 23

We are starting a fall retreat at Red Boot September 23 at Red Boot Hillsboro, TX. I am not taking reservations at this time, but wanted to give you a heads up. At this time, they are only taking a max of 16 people, but if the pandemic lightens up, they will accept more. Stay Tuned for more information in the upcoming months.

Sew Happy,

Have you wondered whether our BCQG Bees are meeting during this pandemic? Yes, most of our bees are meeting. The pictures were taken at Zoom parties or at one of their bee meetings.

Our bees are meeting in-person, via Zoom or even doing Zoom sew-alongs. Some people find it easier to attend a sew-along online. Bee members are having fun and remaining connected.

January 5, 2021, BCQG Board Meeting Minutes Zoom Meeting

President, Kathi Runyan opened the meeting at 6:35 pm on ZOOM with the following officers and members present: Kathi Runyan, Nancy Carr, Aleta Mayrose, Kay Thomas, Kyle Mills, Kathy Longo, JoAnne Sheppard, Sheri Jones, Pam Roark, Mary Nalley, Debra Heid, Beth Gerth, Lauren Friend, and Michelle Lewis. Kathi welcomed all new officers and committee members for 2021. The previous meeting minutes were read by Nancy Carr; motion to accept was made by Aleta Mayrose, seconded by Kyle Mills and minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Kay Thomas reported an income of $148.64, expenses of $198.95, with a net loss of -$50.31. Kay is to meet and work with the audit committee to perform a transaction audit of the Treasury to the new Treasurer, Kyle Mills, and to close out 2020 yearly account actions. Audit committee to be comprised of Mary Nalley, JoAnne Sheppard, and Aleta Mayrose.

1st VP Report: Aleta reported the Guild meeting's speaker for January 19, 2021, is Judy Steward. Business meeting will begin at 7pm, with presentation to begin at 7:30pm. Judy will be presenting, via Zoom, her lecture topic, Quilting Tips and Tricks. No workshop is planned. An email blast with more information will be distributed to members. February and March programs will also be on the Zoom platform.

2nd VP: Kay Thomas-nothing to report.

Unfinished Business: Kathi shared a thank you note from Colleen Connor on her being selected and receiving her Quilt of Valor quilt; she was very grateful.

Kyle Mills and Susan Turk, through email communication, is offering online help with Zoom and getting "connected" for guild meetings, etc. with their contact information.

New Business:

1. Zoom business account for the Guild - Discussion focused on purchasing a Guild account rather than an individual account. Communications chair, JoAnne Sheppard, will set up and manage the account for all guild meetings. If others want to use it for Bee meetings she would set it up and they would be given authority to be the administrator. Motion brought forward by Kathy Longo to purchase a Zoom business account for the Guild, seconded by Aleta Mayrose, and motion passed.

It was also suggested to conduct a review to explore how Quilt Bees could access the Guild Zoom account, as different administrators on the account, for Bee meetings. More to follow.

2. Guild Website - Mary Nalley brought forth discussion on maintaining the old Guild website to forward online inquiries to the new website, which was launched in September/October 2020. There is an annual cost of approximately $35.00 to maintain. After discussion, Kyle Mills made a motion to maintain old website forwarding to new website, for 2021, Aleta Mayrose seconded, and motion was passed.

3. Review and updates of by-laws and policies - Kathi reported that the by-laws and policies are due to be reviewed, and some need updating to provide more clarity and definition of different topics. Past President, Nancy Carr, to be responsible for collating recommendations. Board and committee members were asked to review and email Nancy Carr no later than January 29, 2021, their suggestions for updates and changes to the guild directory by-laws/policies. These collated recommendations will then be presented first to the Board, and then presented to the members for approval.

4. Beekeeper - Pam Roark is the new Guild Beekeeper. Pam has sent out emails to the different Bees to update and maintain an active Bee list. She mentioned the Bee list is not a robust list and suggested to update an active list to put in the newsletter, on the website, and through other social media platforms (Facebook, etc.) to encourage more Bee participation.

5. 30th Anniversary celebration - Celebration is planned for some time in June 2021.

Kathi suggested we formulate a committee of senior and junior guild members to begin joining ideas on how to celebrate. In the meantime, Kathi has reached out to former presidents on some of the ways the guild has celebrated in the past. More to follow.

6. Sunshine and Shadows - Discussion held as to the status of this committee; need a committee chair and members so decisions can be made as to how to proceed with announcements (illnesses, birthdays), and recognitions going forward. Kathi to reach out and see if any interested candidates for position. If anyone is or knows of someone interested, please contact Kathi Runyan.

New business (cont)

7. 2021 Member Directory - Given the current pandemic situation, discussion focused on printing a new directory for 2021 or not. Members from last year are automatically members for 2021. Printing a new directory, with few new members is costly. It was suggested compiling updated information to include in the newsletter and on the website. Mary Nalley has the master of the directory and suggested it will also need to be updated eventually. Kathi to send out correspondence encouraging new ads in the newsletter if directory remains the same. Motion brought forward to not print a new directory for 2021 by Aleta Mayrose, seconded by Kathy Longo, and motion was passed.

She also thanked the Audit committee members, Mary Nalley, JoAnne Sheppard, and Aleta Mayrose, for assisting with the audit for a smooth transition of the position of guild treasurer.

New Business:

Guild ZOOM account: Kathi Runyan stated she had met with the new guild board, who voted on obtaining a business ZOOM account for the guild. This would provide for business, board, and member meetings throughout the year, since we are unable to meet in person presently.

The motion passed with the Communications Chair, JoAnne Sheppard, managing its usage, not for setting up all meetings. It was suggested that guild Bee meetings could be held through this platform as well. If interested in conducting a Bee meeting through the guild ZOOM account, please contact Kathi Runyan or JoAnne Sheppard.
